INSTRUCTIONS

SJSM must receive this completed form and the student must receive a confirmation email, with the alteration request approved, from SJSM before any alterations to a payment plan will be made.

- SJSM reserves the right to deny any payment plan alteration requests.
- Failure to submit the form at least two full business days prior to the original payment in question may result in the request being automatically rejected.
- SJSM may reject requests from students who alter multiple payments on the same payment plan contract.
- In the event a request is rejected and the student cancels the payment/s rejected for alteration, the student will be subject to all applicable late penalties and blocked from attending coursework.
- Refunds will not be given for rejected requests if the payment is processed. This includes bank fees or penalties the student may incur for declined payments.
- Each request approved, will result in a $25.00 (USD) payment plan rescheduling fee.
