APRIL 2019 NEWSLETTER

SJSM Graduation Ceremony 2019

We are looking forward to seeing all our students at the Graduation Ceremony which will be held in Chicago on 5/31/2019. Any student who is projected to graduate by May 15th, 2019 is considered eligible to participate.

We are honored to have Evans McNeil Rogers speaking at the 2019 Graduation Ceremony.

Hon. Evans McNeil Rogers is the Anguillian Minister of Social Development. He is also a member of the House of Assembly in Anguilla.

A photo montage displaying all the great memories from the campuses and your clinical rotations will be projected prior to the start of the Graduation Ceremony. Please feel free to share any relevant pictures/ videos of the school/campus related activities, the beautiful islands etc. Submit your electronic photos to graduation@mail.sjsm.org by May 15th, 2019.

White Coat Ceremony

Last week, both Anguilla and the Saint Vincent campus held their White Coat Ceremony. This is an exciting moment for students, parents, and faculty. On behalf of everyone at SJSM, we would like to congratulate them for moving on to the next stage of the MD program.

Anatomage Tables

We are excited to see the response/ excitement that the Anatomage tables have created amongst students and faculty. The Deans and faculty were present for the formal training session that was held on April 15th in SVG and April 17th in Anguilla. We also had some local media talk about us. Please read these articles to know more.

Exam Master Update

Some of our students have taken advantage of free access to the Exam Master qbank. Please note that the accounts that are not active for one semester may be suspended but can be reactivated. Always use your school email to login. The link to the service is on the library page, at www.sjsm.or/library. If your account is not working, you may email oscar@mail.sjsm.org or call 1-847-375-9130.

Congratulations Dr. Tiwari

We would like to congratulate Dr. Tiwari on the successful publication of his book. Dr. Tiwari is an Associate Professor in Anguilla and teaches Microbiology.

Tiwari Birendra: Isolation and Characterization of Virulent Bacteriophages. Mauritius. LAP Lambert Academic Publishing. 2019. Print. ISBN-10: 6139959330 ISBN-13: 978-6139959334.

Achieving Core Clinical Competencies

US authorities recommended a number of conditions that medical students shall encounter and procedures that medical students shall master. Those conditions and procedures are our logbook requirements. According to the logbook reports, our affiliated hospitals offer practically all required experiences. We are aware that some students may miss some. SJSM introduced remedial education in order to achieve expected core academic competencies. Measures to fulfill the requirements listed in the syllabi started in April 2012. For details, see the syllabi.
