

SJSM Immediate Family Tuition Discount

(Effective beginning fall 2013 enrollment)

- Immediate Family definition – Two individuals legally joined through marriage, parent of a child through birth or adoption, or two or more children having ONE or BOTH parents in common. Blended families may receive the discount for step-siblings.
- Established for families with multiple family members enrolled full-time at SJSM during simultaneous enrollment periods or any family member of an SJSM alumnus with an active membership in the school's alumni association.
- Immediate family members must be admitted through the Admissions Department and meet all admission standards.
- Applies to family members enrolled full-time in our MD. Family members must be enrolled full-time before the discount will be applied.
- Must complete application form each time a family member enrolls at SJSM.
- The immediate family member tuition discount is for tuition only.
- There will be no transfer of the discount, such as one family member receiving the full discount and the other receives nothing.
- For additional details, please review our official immediate family member discount policy.
- Documents Required- All applications for the immediate family tuition discount must be accompanied by a certified true copy (must have a raised seal) of the following documents to be copied:
  - Birth Certificates of the Applicants (parental/sibling relationships)
  - Marriage license (spousal/blended family relationships)
  - Proof of Adoption (step siblings)
